(TAALDEF)
REQUEST FOR CASE REVIEW

TAALDEF does not litigate cases or provide legal services. TAALDEF does network with several non-profit organizations that may be able to assist you.

If you believe you have not been provided equal protection under the law as it relates to employment and education opportunities, property protection, expenditure of taxpayer funds and civil rights issues, please complete this form and return it to us for review.

In addition to sending us the request for case review form, you may send us documents that you think are important for our review of your situation.

PLEASE DO NOT SEND ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS, ONLY COPIES as we cannot return documents to you and we do not keep documents.

1. Is your potential case against a government body or agency?

If your answer is "No" (and your case is against a private party), STOP TAALDEF can not help you.

2. Briefly summarize your dispute or case with a governmental body or agency.

3. Did the government body or agency give any explanation for its actions?

4. If so, briefly explain what were they?

5. Why do you think this action was taken?

6. Is your case currently in litigation? If so, in what court or agency?

7. If your case is already in litigation, what is the next important date or deadline and what is scheduled for that date?

9. Have you consulted and/or retained an attorney?

10. If so, who is the attorney and what is his/her address and telephone number?
